Time to Join or Renew Your TCSS Membership And Save the Date for the TCSS Fall Conference

Thank you for being a social studies educator and for the talents and dedication you bring to our noble profession in the great state of Texas!

TCSS membership benefits extend to more than just professional networking and a great Fall Conference. Annual membership includes our journal The Social Studies Texan, published three times a year; the Journal of Social Studies and History Education, our online learning community; opportunities for professional development hours; legislative advocacy and updates relevant to social studies; and access to a super fun network of social studies educators and resources from across the state!

Join now or renew your membership online at txcss.net or submit this form to our TCSS Membership Office (address listed at the bottom of the form). Invite a friend or co-worker to become a member also, and you'll both enjoy the best part of being a social studies educator in Texas and then join us at the Omni Hotel West Houston (Katy) October 12-14, 2018 for another great TCSS conference!
